CARRIZOZO - NEW MEXICO

Often the joy ride ends in a cemetery.

Winter is staying as long as an unwelcome guest.

Late in March the largest battleship will be in commission. There is no telling how soon it will be obsolete.

Simultaneously with the opening of the postal banks a lot of old yarn socks opened.

That American who photographed cows inside England's fortifications made somewhat of a bull.

Seventeen-year locusts are due this year, but nobody will care if they fail to hear the alarm clock go off.

The aeroplane does not break down oftener than an automobile, but it breaks down in more inconvenient localities.

Some people are eternally fussy. An Indiana man wants a divorce from his wife because she bathes the dog in the dishpan.

Again it is reported that the hoop-skirt is coming back. Not if the wearers have to pass the Flatiron building in New York.

Aviation seems to be like some other methods of producing exhilarating effects; there is difficulty in recognizing the right time to quit.

Up to date the submarines of the world's navies have been chiefly remarkable for the many discouraging accidents which befall them.

It does not astonish us to learn that our sun is a "variable star." Even on this planet it has the reputation of being a highly capricious luminary.

Aviators should let altitude tests go unsought. Endurance and passenger tests are the ones needed at this stage of the art.

The Chicago authorities have voted to limit all buildings begun after September 1 to a height of 200 feet, and if they mean Chicago feet that is surely high enough.

By way of giving the children of the city a chance to see all strange animals that inhabit the earth, the authorities of New York Central park have bought a cow.

Medicine Hat wants its name changed. If Kalamazoo and Oshkosh can be happy and prosperous, there seems to be no reason why Medicine Hat should not be comfortable.

Basket ball may be a perfectly lovely game, but when it becomes necessary to call upon the police to pry players apart it would seem that a revised rule of some sort might well be inserted.

There is in California a fountain of oil that gushes up to a height of 156 feet. Advocates of the conservation of our natural resources might do well to insist that a lid should be put on this fountain.

An Austrian girl, who has just been naturalized in New York, says she became a citizen of this nation because she loves the United States and the American people. That is the kind of citizen we want.

Molient and Hoxsey laughed at danger "as long as the machine was all right." When man becomes perfect, possibly he will invent a machine that is perfect. Until then it is safer to leave flying to the birds.

SAGACIOUS FELINE.

The Lady—Surely, that is a rabbit.
The Cat—If she can make mistakes like that she ought to keep a restaurant.

FRENCH BEAN COFFEE, A HEALTHFUL DRINK

The healthiest ever; you can grow it in your own garden on a small patch 10 by 10, producing 50 pounds or more. Ripens in Wisconsin 90 days. Used in great quantities in France, Germany and all over Europe. Send 15 cents in stamps and we will mail you a package giving full culture directions, or send 31 cents and get in addition to above 10,000 kernels unspassable vegetable and flower seeds—enough for bushels of vegetables and flowers. Great Baseball Play.

"What was the greatest baseball play you ever saw?" asked a friend of Governor-elect John W. Tener.

"The greatest play I ever saw," said he, "took place in an amateur game on a town lot at Charleroi. The teams were playing on a wet field and an outfielder who wore a derby hat went after a high fly. He came to a little pond and taking his eye off the ball made a jump to cross it. As he was leaping the ball struck him on the head, went through the crown of his hat and lodged there. The base runner was out and the fielder had not touched the ball with his hands. Can you beat it?"—Washington Correspondence Pittsburg Dispatch.

Important to Mothers

CAKES FOR AFTERNOON TEA

Recipes for the Making of Several Varieties of These Confections Needed in Entertaining.

The hostess who likes novel little cakes for afternoon tea will find these palatable. A sort of sweet biscuit shaped like a lady finger is made from the well-beaten whites of three eggs into which is beaten almost half a pound of confectioner's sugar. Add four ounces of melted butter, and stir in quickly at the last four ounces of pastry flour.

Put this paste into a pastry bag and force through a tube on well buttered baking sheets. Form finger shapes not too close together as they spread and bake in a moderate oven until a delicate brown.

For an almond cake beat to a cream three ounces of butter and half a pound of soft A sugar, then add gradually a half pint of milk and enough flour to make a light dough. Stir in a quarter of a pound of blanched and minced almonds lightly floured. Put on a floured board, roll about a quarter of an inch thick and cut into diamonds and squares.

Almond macaroons are made by beating the whites of three eggs to a stiff froth, then stirring in half a pound of confectioner's sugar and the strained juice of half a lemon, and last half a pound of ground almonds. Put paper on a flat baking sheet, drop the mixture on by teaspoonfuls and bake in a quick oven until a light brown.

Little German caraway cakes are made by mixing two cups of flour, a cup of butter, a cup and a half of sugar, four eggs, two teaspoonfuls of rose water and half a cup of caraway seed. Drop on baking sheet and bake in a slow oven from 20 minutes to half an hour.

PREPARATION OF POTATOES

Before Baking a Lengthwise Strip Should Be Pared—After Boiling Shake in the Wind.

When preparing potatoes for baking cut one paring around the largest side of the potato lengthwise, and when baked the skin will slip off from each side nicely.

After boiling potatoes pour off all water, take kettle of potatoes to the back door, or wherever the wind will blow on them, and shake several times, and they will be white and mealy.

A fine potato soup: Take three medium sized potatoes, one pint milk, one teaspoonful chopped onion, one stalk celery, one teaspoonful salt, one-half teaspoonful celery salt, one-half salt- spoonful white pepper, one-fourth salt- spoon cayenne, one-half tablespoonful flour, one tablespoonful butter. Cook potatoes until very soft, drain off the water, and mash them. Cook onion and celery with the milk in double boiler and add to the potatoes. Add the seasoning. Rub through a strainer; put on to boil again. Melt the butter in a small saucepan, blend it with the flour, and stir it into the boiling soup. Let it boil five minutes and serve very hot.

An easily prepared potato salad: Slice six cold boiled potatoes and two onions. For dressing, one-half cupful vinegar, one cupful of sweet cream whipped, one teaspoonful dry mustard, salt and pepper to taste, and at last add four hard boiled eggs.

Hot Biscuits.

Two cupfuls of flour, one tablespoonful of butter, one tablespoonful of lard, four teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one teaspoonful of salt, one cupful of milk.

Sift the flour into a basin, rub the shortening finely into it, add the baking powder and salt, then add the milk gradually. Turn out on to a floured board; toss with a knife until the whole surface is floured; pat lightly with a rolling pin until one-half inch thick. Cut in rounds and bake immediately on buttered tins in a quick oven, about twelve minutes.

OPINION NOT ALWAYS FINAL

Pretty Safe to Say That Doctor's Diagnosis Was "Away Off" In This Case.

The pretty daughter of a physician is engaged to a college student of whom her father does not altogether approve. His daughter is too young to think of marriage, the doctor asserts; the college student is too young to think of it, likewise. It is out of the question.

She explained all this to her lover the other night.

"Father says," she summed it up; "father says, dear, that I will have to give you up."

The young man sighed. "Then it's all over?" he murmured, with gloomy interrogation. And the girl laughed and blushed.

"Well," she said, "well, you—you—know that when the doctor gives you up that's just the time for you to take more hope. Isn't it sometimes that way?"—Rebboth Sunday Herald.

The Glamour of the Show.

"When Dustin Stax was a boy he would work like a slave carrying water to the elephant."

"Yes. And now he works just as hard carrying diamond necklaces to opera singers."

On the Stage.

"We've got to get somebody to play this light part."

"Why not the electrician?"—Baltimore American.

Naturally.

"Does your husband go in for golf?" asks the caller.

"No," she answers. "He goes out for it."
